Estate Agents in Stoke-on-Trent

Meet your Local Property Consultant in Stoke-on-Trent, Simon Johnson

[01782 757094](tel:01782 757094)

simon.johnson@hatched.co.uk

Selling houses across the whole of Stoke-on-Trent and Newcastle-under-Lyme – including all six Staffordshire Pottery towns of Burslem, Fenton, Hanley, Longton, Stoke and Tunstall – Simon's been working in the property industry throughout the Stoke area for more than a decade.

Simon was born and raised in Newcastle-under-Lyme, where he still lives today. He believes Stoke's got a lot to offer, which is proven through recent investment in the likes of North Staffordshire Hospital, and all the medical students it brings to Keele University.

Simon leads the way for Hatched customers in the Potteries, offering a custom, personalised selling service from the moment he's invited to value a home.

What does Simon love about working for Hatched? He says there's absolutely nothing Hatched can't do just as well, if not better than a high street agent: "With a dedicated team and experts focusing on each specific area of the sale – progression, booking, negotiations, we can do everything. Plus more!" he says.

"If there's one thing you can say about the people of Stoke is that they're salt of the earth, hard-working, and realistic people. They're so welcoming. When you visit someone's home there's always a brew waiting on the table"

Meet the Hatched Team

Simon Johnson's work as a local estate agent is backed up by a central team of experienced property negotiators, sales progressors, administrators, and booking and viewing coordinators. Our people work across accounts seven days a week to support our customers through every step of their property journey.

Courtney Elijah

Administration Assistant

Courtney is a key member of the Hatched central administration team, delivering essential service support to all departments. Part of her role involves providing our local estate agents with administrative and organisational support to ensure that both our estate agents and our customer are looked after at all times.

Jade Young

Viewings Coordinator

Jade is part of our busy viewings coordination team at head office where she handles queries and enquiries from house hunters up and down the country. She coordinates the schedules of our local estate agents, manages viewings for potential buyers and organises accompanied viewings and open house events with our customers and local estate agents.

Mark Hillier

Sales Progressor

Mark started as a trainee negotiator in 1988 with a large estate agency chain in Surrey. Over the next five years he worked in Richmond and Twickenham, where he was the top negotiator for the year. In early 2016, Mark relocated to Hertfordshire to join the growing Hatched team where he has put his extensive property experience to great use.
